

Let's Talk: Day 267-Whole Bible

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 2, Acts 20 / Family Chapter: Acts 20

"It is more blessed to give than to receive." For one entire day, try to give as often as you can and not ask for anything. At bedtime evaluate how the day made you feel.

Questions:

1. What happened to Eutychus?
2. Why did Paul keep visiting cities he had already been to?
3. What is Paul's goal in life? What are some of your goals?
4. What were some of the final things Paul said to the church of Ephesus? If you were leaving a friend and would never see them again, what would you say?

Let's Talk: Day 268

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 3-4, Acts 21 / Family Chapter: Acts 21

Track all of Paul's travels on a map.

Questions:

1. Where was Paul planning to go? What warnings did he receive?
2. What was Paul's response?
3. Why were some Jews angry with Paul?
4. List the order of events from the time Paul went to the temple until the time he asked to speak to the mob. Can you imagine going through all of that in one day? What attitude did Paul seem to have toward the Jews? How do you think you would have felt?

Let's Talk: Day 269

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 5, Acts 22-23 / Family Chapter: Acts 22

Write a story, a comic strip, or act out verses 2-21.

Questions:

1. How does Paul start his speech to the mob? Why do you think he starts this way?
2. Paul tells of meeting Jesus on the road to Damascus. How did his traveling companions experience this event differently?
3. At what point did the Jews stop listening to Paul's speech? Why? Do you ever stop listening to someone when they start talking about a certain topic? If so, what?
4. What different rights do Roman citizens have from other people? How did God use that to Paul's advantage? What is unique about you that God can use for His good?

Let's Talk: Day 270

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 6, Acts 24-25 / Family Chapter: Acts 25

Agrippa says, "I would like to hear the man myself." If you could talk to any human on Earth or in heaven who would it be? Why?

Questions:

1. What was Paul's crime? To whom did he appeal?
2. What do you think Festus thought of Paul? Why?
3. What do you think Paul was thinking and doing while in prison waiting to go to Rome?
4. Think about all you know of Paul's life – conversion, starting churches, being rejected, and prison. What part do you think would be the hardest to live out and why?

Let's Talk: Day 271

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 7-8, Acts 26 / Family Chapter: Acts 26

Paul's story makes Agrippa consider becoming a Christian. Could you tell someone why you believe in Jesus in two minutes? Practice giving and timing your testimonies.

Questions:

1. Why is Paul happy according to the start of the chapter?

2. Paul is telling his testimony (story) again like he did in chapter 2 In what ways are his stories the same? How are some of the details different?
3. What does Festus think of Paul's story?
4. What does Agrippa think? What kinds of reasons do people give for not becoming a Christian? How could you respond to these arguments?

Let's Talk: Day 272

Today's Reading: Jeremiah 9-11, Acts 27 / Family Chapter: Acts 27

Today you will read how people on a ship had to throw cargo overboard so that the ship wouldn't sink. If you had to get rid of almost everything you owned what would you have the hardest time throwing away?

Questions:

1. What warning did Paul give concerning the ship? Did people listen?
2. What happened?
3. How did Paul encourage the men? What can we learn about God and His mercy even when we don't listen to His advice?
4. How did the actions of one man – Paul – change the direction and attitude of the ship? How might God want you to lead where you are to change the people you are around?

Let's Talk: Day 273

Today's Reading: Today is the weekly OFF Day

Mystery Question for the upcoming week: Who did Paul quote when saying that salvation would be brought to the Gentiles?

Paul's life was devoted to spread the message of Jesus and the hope of salvation whatever the cost. As a family, share the gospel of Christ with someone this week.
