Look for this:

- Titus 1: How someone can deny they know God without words
- Titus 2: What grace (unmerited favor) teaches us on how to live
- Titus 3: When we stop trying to talk sense into a divisive person
- Philemon: Why Philemon was supposed to forgive Onesimus
- Mark 1: What Jesus' disciples left to follow Him
- Malachi 3: Compare Malachi 3:1 to Mark 1:2

Tips:

- Titus is another of Paul's "Pastoral Epistles." He wrote it to Titus, a young pastor serving a church located on the island of Crete. The purpose of the letter was to bring order to the church.
- The theme of Titus is to maintain good works. Our character is more important than our gifts.
- Philemon gives us a powerful lesson on forgiveness and Christian relationships. Philemon was a prominent member of the church at Colosse which met in his house.
- The gospel of Mark is a quick-hitting, fast-paced record of Jesus' life depicting Him as the Perfect Servant of God. Notice that the book does not mention genealogy. It jumps right into the service of the Perfect Servant, Jesus.
