Look for this:

- Mark 7: What Jesus did to heal the deaf and mute man
- Mark 8: How Jesus responds to those ashamed of Him
- Mark 9: Why Jesus’ disciples were arguing on the road
- Mark 10: What Jesus said about those keeping kids from Him
- Mark 11: Why the scribes and the priests feared Jesus
- Psalms 146: Compare Psalm 146:8 to Mark 8:25

Tips:

- The gospel of Mark records many miracles, including two not found in the other gospel accounts: healing the deaf and mute man (Mark 7:31-37) and healing the blind man at Bethsaida (Mark 8:22-25).
- The gospel of Mark has two sections. The first half of the book (ending in Mark 8:30) focuses on Jesus’ service. The second half of the book (beginning in Mark 8:31) focuses on Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross.
- The gospel of Mark is fast-paced with events cascading one after another. The key word “immediately” comes from the Greek word “eutheos” which appears 42 times in the book.
