Tips:

- Leviticus describes the sacrifices, laws, and priesthood (from the tribe of Levi) to ensure Israel is holy (a set-apart people; different like God). Holiness is required for a relationship with God. The key phrase repeated throughout the book is “You shall be holy, for I am holy” (Lev 11:44-45).
- Leviticus 1-7 was a handbook for Israel’s five major sacrifices. Three offerings were voluntary acts of worship (burnt, grain, peace). Two offerings were mandatory acts of atonement for sins (sin, trespass). All five foreshadowed Christ’s sacrifice (Heb 10:1-18) as well as our worship (Rom 12:1-2).

- The Psalms contain the prayer journal entries of those who walked with God always, from crushing trials to joyous victories. Experiment with praying a psalm back to God verse by verse, using it as a prayer guide.

Look for this:

43. How Moses responded to Israel's Tabernacle offering (Exo 36); How God wants us to respond when He delivers us (Psa 30)
44. What happened after they build the Tabernacle (Exo 40); What the psalmist said is a blessing from God (Psa 32)
45. How the voluntary offerings "smelled" to God (Lev 1-3); What the psalmist found after seeking God in prayer (Psa 34)
46. How people were to pay back what they took (Lev 6); How a wicked person views God (Psa 36)
47. What three places blood was applied to the priests (Lev 8); What God does for the steps of a good man (Psa 37)
48. Why Nadab and Abihu died (Lev 10); How the psalmist dealt with his anger (Psa 39)
