Tips:

- The book of 1Samuel records how Israel rejected God as their king and received King Saul. Saul had the look of a leader but lacked the heart for God. When Saul repeatedly disobeyed God, God replaced him with King David who did have a heart for Him.
- The last several chapters of Proverbs are attributed to three authors: King Solomon (Pro 25:1), Agur (Pro 30:1), and King Lemuel's mother (Pro 31:1). Notice that each author was committed to ensuring God's wisdom was passed on to others:
  - ▶ Solomon to his son (Pro 25:1, 27:11)
  - ▶ Agur to Ithiel and Ucal (Pro 30:1)
  - ▶ King Lemuel's mother to King Lemuel (Pro 31:1)

Look for this:

127. Why the people wanted a king (1Sam 8, Deu 17:14-20); How parenting is about the heart first, then actions (Pro 23)

128. What Saul was doing when he was to become king (1Sam 10); What the consequences of laziness are (Pro 24)

129. How Saul justified disobediently offering a sacrifice (1Sam 13);
How listening to gossip is sweet but divisive (Pro 26)
130. How Jonathan's leadership differed from Saul's (1Sam 14); How not listening to God's Word affects your prayers (Pro 28)
131. How God sees people differently than we often do (1Sam 16);
Who has more hope than those who speak hastily (Pro 29)
132. What David trusted more than a sword or spear (1Sam 17); Why having all our needs met is dangerous (Pro 30)
