Tips:

- Jeremiah ministered in the days that three superpowers surrounding Judah vied together for dominance: Egypt, Assyria (modern Turkey/Iraq), and Babylon (modern Iraq/Iran).
- Jeremiah 31:31-34 records God's promise to the divided Jewish kingdoms of Israel and Judah to replace the Old Covenant/Testament with the New Covenant/Testament (Heb 8:6-13). God allowed the Gentiles (non-Jewish people) to take part in this covenant (Eph 2:11-22) and planned to use the Gentiles to help the Jews return to Him (Rom 11:11-15).
- The book of 1Corinthians is one of Paul's letters to the church in Corinth. Paul had planted the church in this very affluent and sinful Greek city (Acts 18:1-18) and wrote them after his departure (1Cor 5:9-11). Unfortunately, sinful cultural influences and their own spiritual immaturity required him to systematically address each church problem in this letter.

Look for this:

- 281. Why the leaders wanted to put Jeremiah to death (Jer 26); Why Israel was unable to attain righteousness (Rom 9)
- 282. Why Jeremiah sent yokes to Judah and other nations (Jer 27); What Paul said people do to be saved (Rom 10)
- 283. How God assured those in captivity of a better future (Jer 29); How God grafts Gentiles into Israel's "tree" spiritually (Rom 11)
- 284. How God promised to offer His people a new covenant (Jer 31); How to respond instead of taking revenge (Rom 12)
- 285. How God promised to raise up the Messiah, "Branch" (Jer 33); How to treat disagreements which are non-essential (Rom 14)
- 286. How the Rechabites were a model of obedience to all (Jer 35); What God had sent Paul to do instead of baptizing (1Cor 1)
