
1Peter: Let's Talk

This Grace@Home Let's Talk Guide provides discussion questions and activities that you may use to facilitate conversations about God and His Word in your home. The focus is on those chapters that are most likely to promote meaningful conversations for all ages of family members.

1Peter 3

It is never too early to pray for the spouses of our children, or for our children to pray for their own future spouses. What kinds of things do you pray for those future spouses?

Questions

1. What is precious in the sight of God concerning a woman? Do you know a woman who has this quality? If so share.
2. What's the job of a husband?
3. What should we always be ready to do? How can you prepare yourself?
4. How is it better to suffer for good rather than evil? How is Jesus our example of that?

1Peter 5

Call your oldest, closest relative or friend. Thank them for their good example to you. If you can't talk, send them a hand written card.

Questions

1. What should everyone's attitude be, not just the younger people? What would the world look like if everyone really did this?
2. How is the devil described in this chapter? What are we supposed to do when we feel attacked?
3. What is God's plan for us? Does it involve hardship too? Why do you think so?
4. Can you think of a tough trial you went through that actually helped you to grow up a little (either spiritually or physically)? Explain.
