
Galatians: Let's Talk

This Grace@Home Let's Talk Guide provides discussion questions and activities that you may use to facilitate conversations about God and His Word in your home. The focus is on those chapters that are most likely to promote meaningful conversations for all ages of family members.

Galatians 2

Play Charades, acting out ways Christians serve each other and the community. Have you done any of these things? God has absolutely called us to good works, but it's not how we win God's favor. Read Galatians 2 to get Paul's perspective.

Questions

1. With whom did Paul have an issue? What was it about? How did he deal with it?
2. If you had been Paul, what might have been scary about this conversation?
3. How does being "crucified with Christ" change your life?
4. How can you use the last verse of this chapter to answer people that want to try to be "good enough" for heaven?

Galatians 3

Use photographs or pictures from a magazine to categorize people. Can you find a dozen ways to put them in categories? To God, there are only two categories: those who put their faith in Jesus and those who don't.

Questions

1. What should be your heart motivation: faith or works? Why?
2. If you try to obey the Law to earn God's favor, how many of the rules do you need to follow? Is that possible?
3. After reading this chapter, why would you say it was so important for Jesus to come, perfectly follow the Law, and die as a sacrifice for us?
4. According to this chapter, what is the purpose of the Law?

Galatians 5

What makes you happy? How can you “love your neighbor as yourself” and bring happiness to others? Make a plan to do it!

Questions

1. God has called us to liberty in Christ. How should we use our liberty?
2. All the law is fulfilled in what phrase according to verse 14? How well do you think Christians in the United States do at this? Can you give an example of you or your family living this out?
3. What are some of the works of the flesh?
4. What are some of the fruit of the Spirit? This fruit is produced when we walk in the Spirit. Practically, how do we daily walk in the Spirit?
